Researchers Of Defiance County Cemeteries

Tombstone Inscriptions From The Years 1978-1983

This book was Edited and Typed by Harold H Rulman for the Defiance Co. Chapter of the OGS. Dedicated to all who worked to gather all the data from the cemeteries in the twelve townships in Defiance County, Ohio. We would like to apologize for any mistakes that are in this book and hope that you can understand the way that it is set up. We are working on books with corrections and additions. We would like to say THANK YOU to everyone that has helped in anyway to make this project possible. We hope that we have not left anyone's name out but if we have please except our apology.

FARMER CEMETERY

FARMER TOWNSHIP

The Farmer Cemetery is located in Section 16, Farmer Township, Defiance County, Ohio. It is located on the west side of Cemetery Road. It can be reached by taking State Route #2 about one half mile west of Farmer to Cemetery road, then one half mile north on Cemetery road. The oldest section of the cemetery is on the north side. The earliest stones are dated for burials in the 1840's. Many stones are probably missing in this oldest section. The cemetery is very well cared for by the Farmer Township Trustees, and an active Farmer Cemetery Association. The newer sections are still in use. These cemetery inscriptions were copied by us from August to October 1978.

KEMP CEMETERY

FARMER TOWNSHIP

DEFIANCE COUNTY, OHIO

RESEARCHED BY

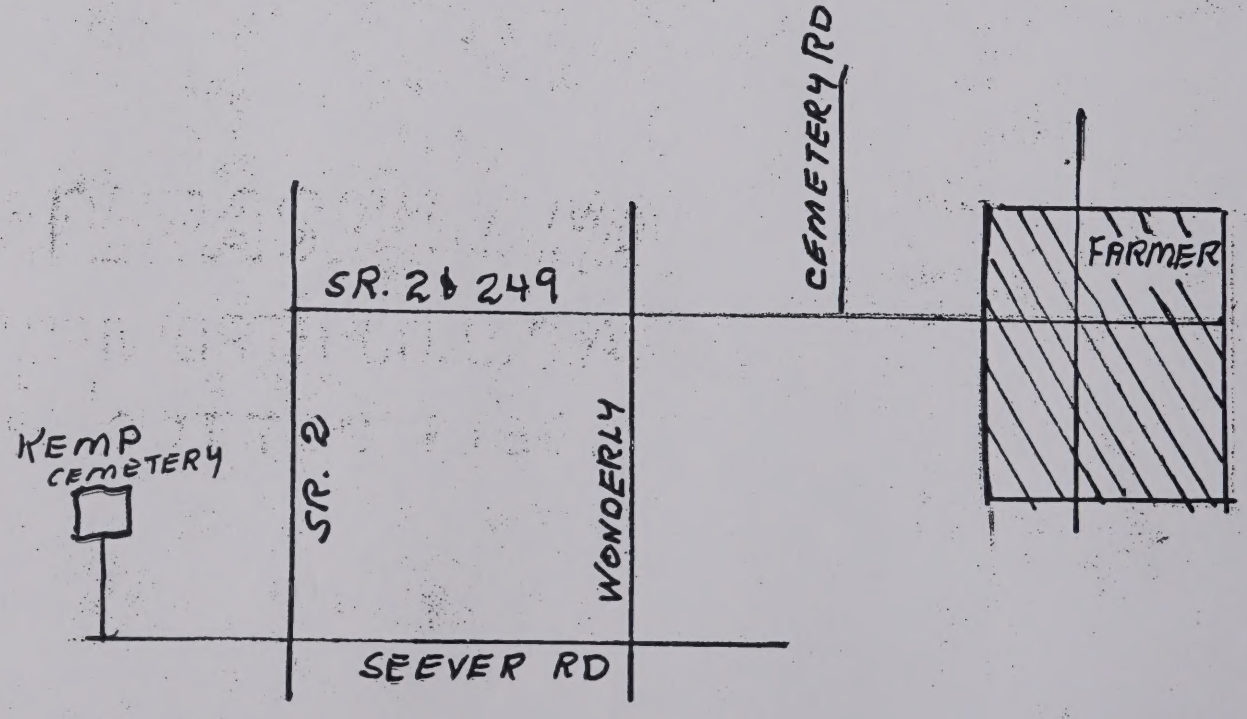
GLADYS DONSON & CARRIE WALTERS

FOR THE

DEFIANCE CHAPTER OF

OHIO GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY

APRIL 1979



KEMP CEMETERY

The Kemp Cemetery is in Section 19 of Farmer Township, Defiance County, Ohio. It is two miles west of Farmer, Ohio and one mile south on State Route #2, then ½ mile west on Seever Road. The cemetery is back in a field on the north side of Seever Road. It is presently well "cleaned up", but probably suffered many years of neglect in the past. Most of the burials are at about the time of the Civil War- some earlier. Many of the stones are unreadable with any degree of certainty. Some stones are broken off, some are piled in the fence, and there are probably many graves where no stone remains, if there ever was one. These inscriptions were copied in April, 1979, by Gladys Walters Donson and Carrie Walters for the Defiance Chapter of the Ohio Genealogical Society.

LOST CREEK CEMETERY

FARMER TOWNSHIP

DEFIANCE COUNTY, OHIO

RESEARCHED BY

GLADYS DONSON & CARRIE WALTERS

FOR THE

DEFIANCE CHAPTER OF

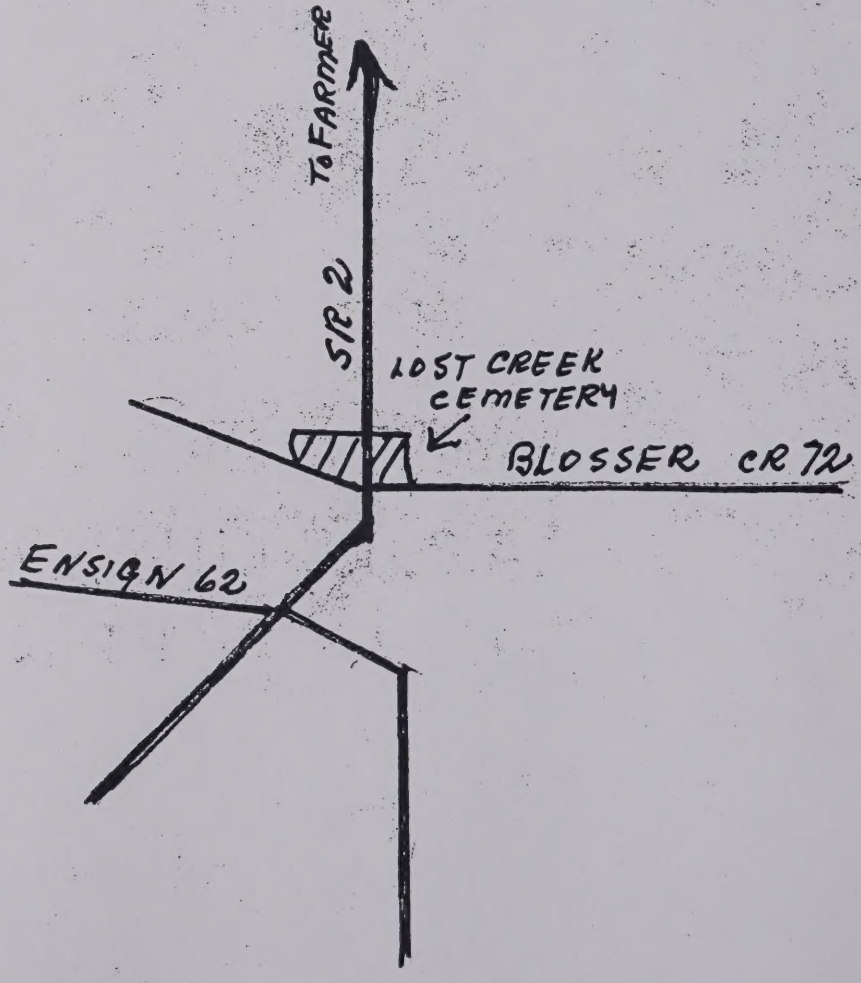
JULY--AUG 1978



LOST CREEK CEMETERY

This Cemetery is located on State Rt. 2, two miles west and two miles south of Farmer, Ohio on the east side of the road:

Quoting from the "Centennial Anniversary 1877--1977" of St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church, Hicksville, Ohio we find this record of the beginnings of this cemetery: "In the vicinity of Lost Creek, in Farmer Township, Defiance, County, a number of Lutheran families settled. Desiring to organize into a congregation . . . this group met in the District #4 schoolhouse June 17, 1849. The newly organized congregation was to be known as the Lost Creek English Evangelical Lutheran Church . . . . In 1859 one acre of ground in the southwest corner of Section 29, Farmer Township was purchased for $50.00 for the purpose of building a church. A parish cemetery was also plotted on part of this land, in which the first recorded burial was that of James D., son of Daniel and Mary Hilbert, who died Aug. 17, 1860."

Additional land has since been added to the cemetery.

This cemetery is very well-kept, and has always been, within the memory of those familiar with it. It was subjected to wanton vandalism a couple of years ago, but the Township Trustees and other cemetery officials are to be commended for the prompt and excellent job of restoration. Only a few of the very oldest stones were lost.

In researching this cemetery I started on the South side, at the front of the cemetery facing State Rt. 2. The cemetery is divided into six sections, with a drive between each section. In the first five sections the lots are "double" - room for 4 burials at the front of the lot and 4 at the foot. Consequently, each row of tombstones also included stones for people buried at the foot of the lot. This was the only way I could keep families together. This cemetery was researched by my mother, Mrs. Roy Walters, and myself in July--August 1978 for the Defiance Chapter of the Ohio Genealogical Society.

OR OLD PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH CEMETERY

FARMER TOWNSHIP

DEFIANCE COUNTY, OHIO

RESEARCHED BY

GLADYS DONSON & CARRIE WALTERS

FOR THE

DEFIANCE CHAPTER OF

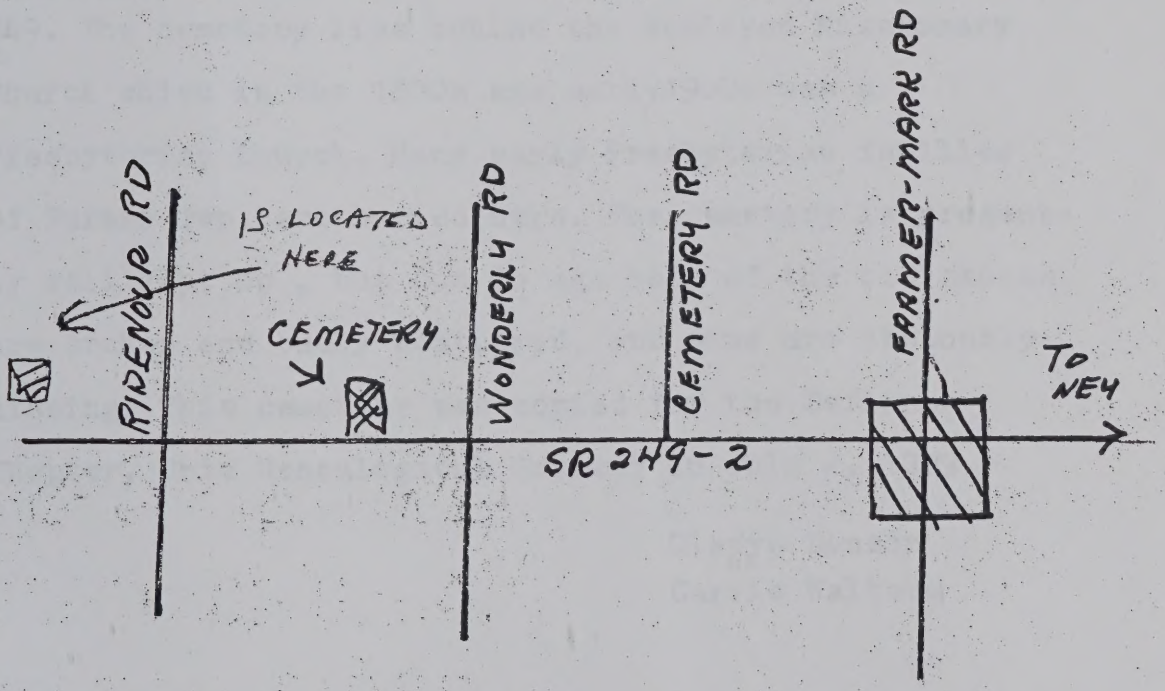
JULY 1979



UPPER LOST CREEK CEMETERY
FARMER TOWNSHIP

The Upper Lost Creek Cemetery (Old Presbyterian Church Cemetery) is located in Section 18, Farmer Township, Defiance County, Ohio. It is two and one fourth miles west of Farmer, Ohio on the north side of State Route 249. The cemetery lies behind the Wesleyan Missionary Church which in the 1800s ans early 1900s was a Presbyterian Church. Many early Presbyterian families of Farmer Twp. are buried here. The cemetery is presently well kept up , but due to age many of the old stones are broken and badly weathered, and some are obviously missing. This cemetery was copied for the Defiance Chapter, Ohio Genealogical Society on July 2, 1979.
